

OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL

International Criminal Court-Related Sanctions Regulations
31 CFR part 528

GENERAL LICENSE NO. 14

Authorizing Certain Transactions Related to Telecommunications and Enterprise Software
Involving the International Criminal Court

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this general license, all transactions prohibited by the International Criminal Court-Related Sanctions Regulations (ICCSR), 31 CFR part 528, that are ordinarily incident and necessary to the receipt or transmission of telecommunications involving the International Criminal Court are authorized.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this general license, the exportation or reexportation, sale, or supply, directly or indirectly, from the United States or by U.S. persons, wherever located, to the International Criminal Court of services incident to the exchange of communications over the internet, such as instant messaging, chat and email, social networking, sharing of photos and movies, web browsing, blogging, social media platforms, collaboration platforms, video conferencing, e-gaming, e-learning platforms, automated translation, web maps, user authentication services, web hosting, and domain name registration services, that is prohibited by the ICCSR, is authorized.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this general license, all transactions prohibited by the ICCSR that are ordinarily incident and necessary to the provision, acquisition, development, implementation, operation, maintenance, or repair of enterprise software involving the International Criminal Court are authorized.

Note 1 to paragraph (c). For the purpose of this general license, the term “enterprise software” includes software for enterprise management; enterprise resource planning; financial management; human resources and payroll; customer, donor, or stakeholder relationship management; supply chain and procurement management; facilities and maintenance management; project and grant management; cybersecurity solutions; data storage, backup, and recovery software; as well as cloud-based services, including Software-as-a-Service, in support of the foregoing.

(d) All blocked accounts of the International Criminal Court may be used, debited, or credited for the transactions authorized in paragraphs (a) through (c) of this general license.

(e) This general license does not authorize any transactions otherwise prohibited by the ICCSR, including transactions involving any person blocked pursuant to the ICCSR other than the blocked persons described in paragraphs (a) through (d) of this general license, unless separately authorized.

Note 2 to General License No. 14. Nothing in this general license relieves any person from compliance with any other Federal laws or requirements of other Federal agencies, including export, reexport, and transfer (in-country) licensing requirements maintained by the Department of Commerce's Bureau of Industry and Security.

Bradley T. Smith Digitally signed by Bradley T. Smith
Date: 2026.10.09 08:43:49 -04'00'

Bradley T. Smith
Director
Office of Foreign Assets Control

Dated: October 9, 2026